Subject: Reminder: Cooperation - Copyright case

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to find out if our company and yourselves can come to a working agreement together. I sent you an email on the [REDACTED] of which I am not certain if you received it? Briefly my email stated that In order to work as effectively as possible, we work together with law firms that specialize in copyright law/ entertainment law/ intellectual property.

The law firm activities consist of:

- Filing the complaint
  - Obtaining a court order for expedited discovery on the Internet Service Provider (ISP)
  - Preparing and sending letter to identified copyright infringers
  - Preparing and sending final demand letter to infringers
- To enable you to have a clearer picture of our concept please have a look at our World Wide Web Site <http://www.copyright-defenders.com/>. As well as example, John Doe in RFC Express <http://www.rfcexpress.com/>.

I would be very grateful if you can send me a short note so that I know that my email has been read and I do not have to worry you again by following it up (in case of spam?). On the other hand if you would like more detailed information, we would be very happy to set up a meeting of your convenience.

Thank you and friendly regards,

Michelle Olson
