ORDER

On March 8, 2017, I ordered Plaintiff to file a weekly status report respecting its efforts to identify and serve the Doe Defendant. (Doc. No. 7.) I ordered Plaintiff, once it identified the Doe Defendant, to: “(1) detail what, if any, efforts it has made to serve the Summons and Complaint on the Doe Defendant; and (2) state whether it has otherwise contacted the Doe Defendant, and, if so, explain the nature of that contact.” (Doc. No. 7.) This morning, Plaintiff filed a status report in which it indicates that it has identified the Doe Defendant, but states only that it “is making efforts to have the subscriber served with the Complaint.” (Doc. No. 13.) This vague statement fails to comply with my March 8 Order. Accordingly, I will order Plaintiff’s Counsel to submit an affidavit no later than 5:00 p.m. today that is responsive to my March 8 Order.

AND NOW, this 7th day of April, 2017, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Counsel shall submit an affidavit no later than 5:00 p.m. today, in which he: (1) details what, if any, efforts Plaintiff has made to serve the Summons and Complaint on the Doe Defendant; and (2) states whether Plaintiff has otherwise contacted the Doe Defendant, and, if so, explains the nature of that contact.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS ORDER MAY RESULT IN SANCTIONS.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
